Case No. 2:13-cv-00464-APG-NJK

ORDER REQUIRING THE PARTIES TO MEET AND CONFER

12
13 The parties have filed several motions in limine in anticipation of trial. Per my Civil 14 Standing Order No. 1, which is posted on my court webpage, counsel should meet and confer to 15 determine whether the potential evidentiary disputes mentioned in the various motions actually
16 exist and can be narrowed or eliminated.

17 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the parties shall meet and confer about the substance
18 of these (and any other contemplated) motions in limine. If agreements are reached on any 19 motions, in whole or in part, the prophylactic goal of motions in limine may be obtained by 20 incorporating the agreements into a stipulation and proposed order for me to consider. Should the 21 parties not reach agreement, the parties must file a certificate stating that counsel actually
22 conferred in good faith to resolve the issue and confirming which motions remain in dispute.
23 Failure to file the certificate of counsel will result in the denial of all motions in limine.

24 Dated: December 11, 2015.
